YEARBOOK DEDICATION

Julius P. Laws

The yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1984 yearbook to Mr. Julius P. Laws, a mentor and a friend to his students as well as faculty members. To those who know him, he is a man of many wonders and intricacies. Julius is an understanding listener as well as a teacher. There are times when one can see him teaching the difficulties of Calculus and other times when he is seen instructing us in the difficulties of life.

As time passes and we graduate to greater challenges, many memories of Matoaca High School will fade, yet the memory of Julius Laws will forever remain in our thoughts.

WARRIOR SPIRIT

Thirty six yers ago a man named George Orwell wrote a book, this book described what he thought the future would be like; the name of this book, simply 1984, he arrived at this by reversing the digits 4 and 8 in 1948 thus making 1984.

This book showed the future as a time of massive oppression and no freedom. In our book, ARROW 1984, we will try to show a contrast between Orwell's predictions and the way life is at Matoaca High School in 1984; so sit back and remember the times, the good and the not so good, we have had at Matoaca High School.

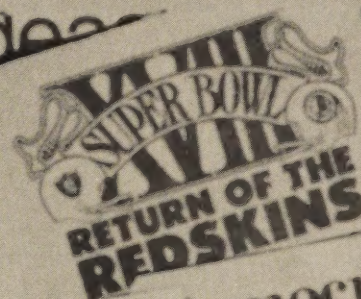

The students here at Matoaca are very high-spirited and are very freedom — oriented; some would even be called rebellious, but we are a long way from the oppressed people of George Orwell's book.

Warriors In Action

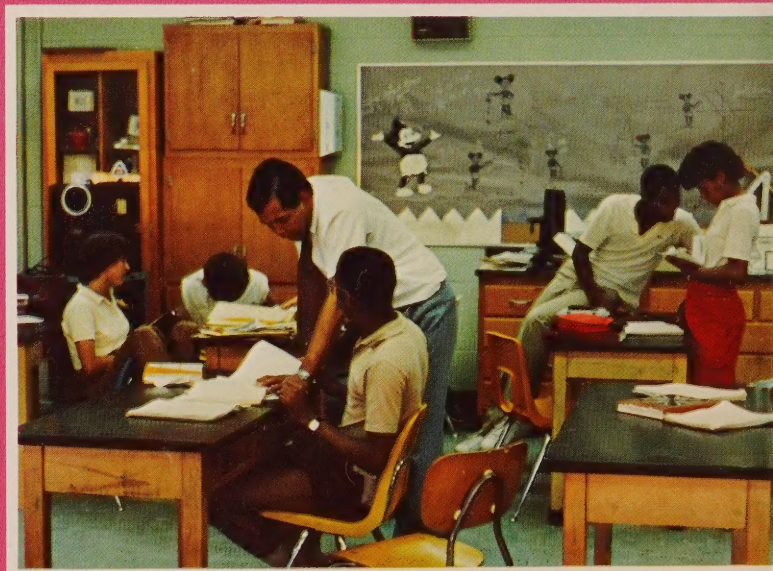

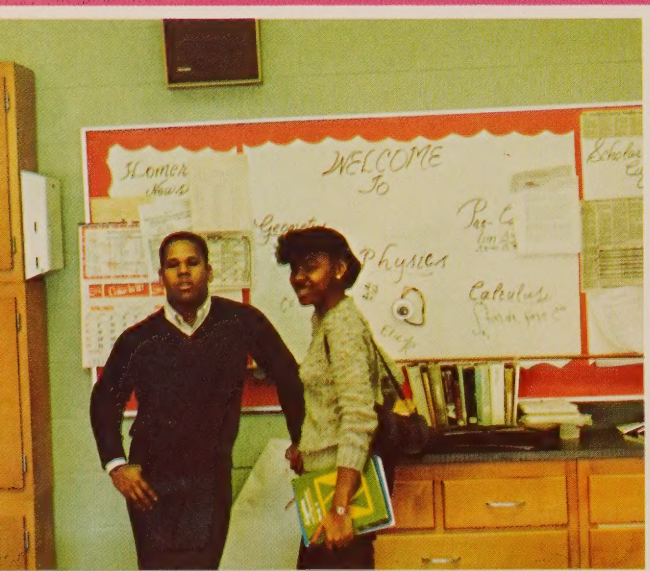

Doing What We Do Best

The Bond Of Friendship

At Matoaca High School some students develop close friendships with other students, these friendships take many forms; some of the closest friendships develop between student and their teachers a few of these friendships are very unique. We can only hope that some of these relationships will stand the test of time.

The Vampire Strikes Again

At the annual SCA blood drive students and teachers alike all come together for the purpose of helping others

Above — Mr. Brockwell doesn't seem to be enjoying it very much.

Left — Victor Vestal doesn't seem to mind being drained of a pint.

Below — Mark Ward seems relieved by a few kind words from Beth Jenkins.

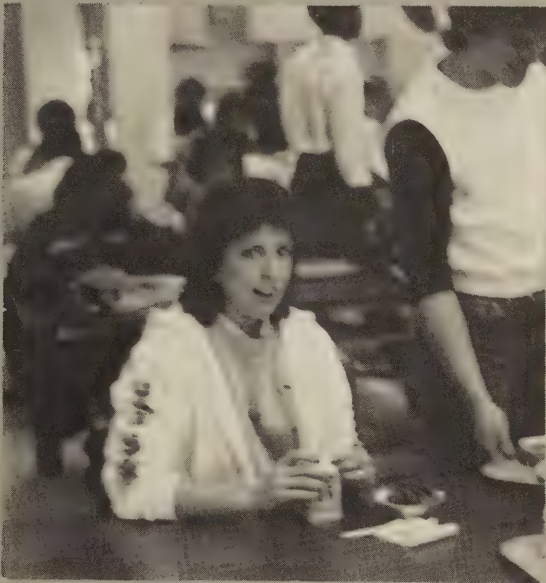

Warriors Standing Proud

At Matoaca, pep rallies have always been a source of relaxation at the end of a hard day, partly because of the fact that we get out of class for about an hour! As seniors, pep rallies had an additional aspect, to our egos anyway, we were recognized as SENIORS by the rest of the school body. I think that we will remember these pep rallies for many years after graduation.

We Put It

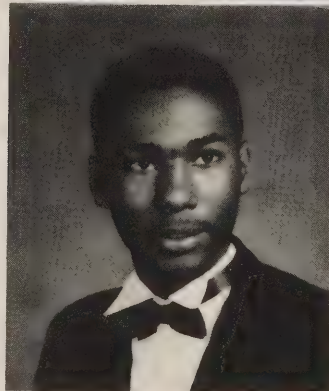

We put it all together. We, the Class of 1984, wrote the last chapter of our high school careers and added another dimension to our lives. Our lives are diverse — academic, athletic, personal. We experience joys and triumphs. However, we also experience sorrow and defeat. Each experience adds to our knowledge of life and perhaps to our understanding of it. Pictured at right are the officers of the Class of 1984. Row 1: Katherin Warren, President Kymber Williams, Raye Anne Smith. Row 2: Angie Fields, Debra Glover, Brian Durham, and Sally Butler.

To Deborah Lynn Shands

Prim and proper and as neat as could be,
Debbie was truly well thought of by the student body and me,
Her gentle voice and her pretty smile
Will live with us for a long, long while.
Michael Jackson, all her friends knew, she adored.
She thought no finer entertainer had existed before.
She was full of ambition; she was always in command.
Her life for the future she had so recently planned.
Her happy laugh we all liked to hear.
We'll always remember Debbie, for she was so dear.
She had a heart of untarnished gold,
And must have been made from a mighty fine mold.
Debbie was quite an achiever; we very well know;
She made good grades even though on the go.
In all that she did, she was success,
Always doing her best and accepting no less.
So grieve not for Debbie; let her memory live on
For never a finer person was ever born,
And just like the "Thriller" she'll never be gone!

KyMBER WILLIAMS
President, Class of 1984

She passes away like morning dew
Before the sun was high
So brief her time, she scarcely knew
The meaning of a sigh.

As round the rose its soft perfume,
Sweet love around her floated
Admired she grew -- while mortal doom
Crept on, unfeared, unnoted.

Love was her guardian angel here,
But love to death resigned her
Tho' love was kind, why should we fear,
But holy death is kinder?

Harley Coleridge
RELIGIOUS VERSE ANTHOLOGY

Oh, how we enjoyed the time that you were here;
Your smile, your laugh will be held dear.
Your presence here has played a pleasant part,
And everything you did will be remembered in our hearts.
Even though we won't see you on this earth again.
You will be in a very special place,
And remembrances of you, we can n'er erase.
Visions of you remain in our minds --
Visions that withstand the passage of time.

Katherine A. Warren

Her life was so unselfish
For others she did live
Not for what she would receive
But only for what she could give.

The songbird's melody fills the air
Long after the bird has gone
And when the rose has lost its blooms,
Its fragrance lingers on.

And though we cannot see the one,
From whom we had to part
Her memory, like a melody, will live
Within our hearts.

God, give this message to our love one
Up above,
And tell her how much we'll miss her,
And give her all our love.

Sadly missed,
Class of '84

*We must now celebrate life.
Celebrate the lives of the past that touched ours;
Celebrate lives that are now juxtaposed;
Celebrate lives of the future that will leave their mark.
We celebrate, knowing even as we do so
That life at its best is still transitory.*

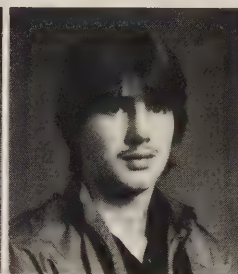

*We celebrate all that life offers us,
And all that we might hope to hold within our grasps.
For we see visions of grandeur wrought from serious endeavor and persistence,
Grandeur from wise choices and sweet successes
As well as from erred performances repaired and begun anew.
And though we acknowledge the existence of limits,
We believe there are no limitations beyond which the human mind and spirit cannot soar.
And so
We must now celebrate life.*

JUNIORS

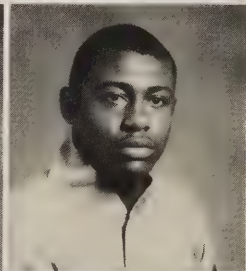

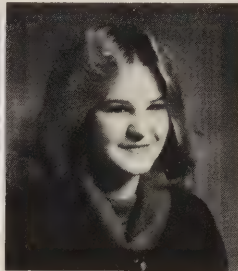

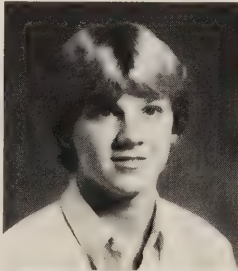

The Junior year is a year of anticipation. Like ladies-in-waiting, we counted the months and then the days when we should wear the mantle of seniority. Yet, we sought to use the year '83-'84 wisely. We accepted the challenges of the esoteric sciences, advanced languages and the verses of the our great American poets. Surprisingly, there was enough time for parties, projects, athletics, and our first prom. Class leaders were Hollis Campbell and Sheila Robinson, seated; Sandra Logan, Gwen Nugent, Candace Brown, Linda Kidd, standing. Advisors were Ms. Pond, far right, and Mrs. Pettus, far left.

THE SPIRIT

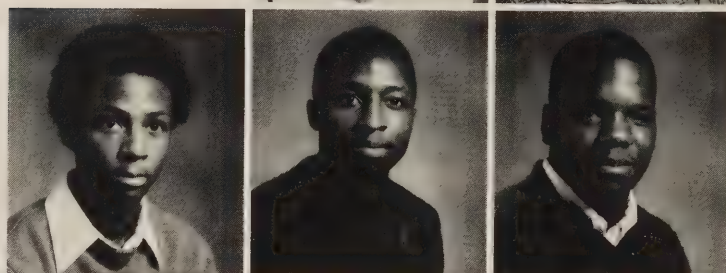

Although the spirit of a school pervades the total environment, it is most discernible when we all gather to sing praises of ourselves. Each class tends to exhibit a separate personality. Seniors were bold and confident. Juniors, comprising the smallest class, were daring and competitive. Sophomores, with audacity uncommon to underclassmen, were vocal and vigorous. Although tentative at first, Freshmen too demonstrated the Spirit of '84.

SOPHOMORES

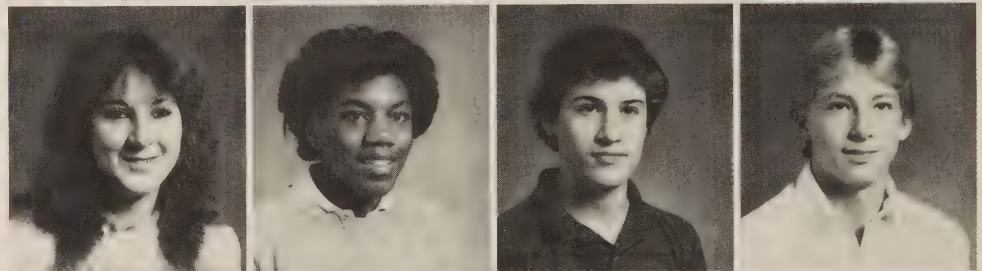

You can call it the Cinderella class of '83-'84. The Sophomore Class made its presence known throughout the school. Early in the year the class exerted its influence in float and spirit competition, and it continued to leave its mark on the total school environment. Class president April Quarles is flanked by advisors Mrs. Pace and Miss Pulley. Other officers are from left to right: Lyle Jones, Tammy Humphries, Robbin Cheives, Michelle Wills.

FRESHMEN

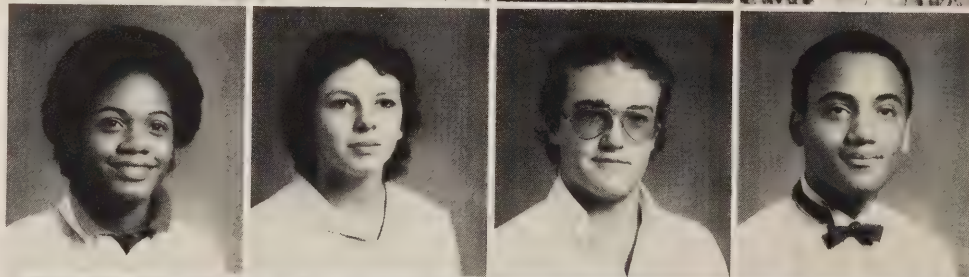

The freshman year is a year for breaking in — a year for becoming accustomed to new facilities, new teachers, new routines. Breaking in didn't take long, and we achieved full status as Matoaca Warriors. Leadership was given by our class officers who are pictured at right: Kenny Eanes, Tara Rose, President Kim Brickhouse, Dean Simmons, and Julee Maddra.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Creme de la Creme

The 1983-84 National Honor Society was composed of nine seniors and three juniors. Projects included maintaining an Honor Roll Board and encouraging academic excellence by highlighting biographies of outstanding students in the upstairs showcase. Above, Rev. Paulson addresses the student body at the induction ceremony, and Inductee Harlan South lights his candle. Top right, Mrs. Wilder addresses organization members, and new members are pictured. Mrs. Hill keeps us organized.

SCA

The SCA tries to promote school spirit, accepts complaints and suggestions, and does its best to uplift MHS on the ladder of success. The SCA is a very active organization. In the fall under the leadership of Mrs. Clemmons, the club sponsored successful Homecoming activities. In the spring under the leadership of Mrs. Wilson, it sponsored a blood drive with the Richmond Metropolitan Blood Service. Students and friends of Matoaca High were able to donate a pint of blood. As a special novel project the SCA gave each member of the student body a lollipop. The SCA was under the leadership of the zealous Michael Clarke as president. His assistants were Julie McClellan, vice-president; Deborah Barfield, treasurer; Beth Jenkins, secretary; Harlan South, historian; and Henry Washington, parliamentarian.

Induction ceremonies are held each year to replace graduating members.

Miss Wray greets Kiwanis representative, Dr. Madden.

The purpose of the Key Club is to provide service to the school and community. It is sponsored by the Kiwanis International. In a joint effort with the Keyette Club, the Key Club donated a truckload of toys to the Salvation Army for Christmas. Leadership was provided by Michael Clarke, president, and Mr. Garletts, sponsor.

Kymber Williams served as president of the Keyette Club; Miss Wray was sponsor. Some of the projects of the club were donating oranges to the girls and boys basketball teams, visiting the Chesterfield Nursing Home and giving canned goods to the needy.

The Key and Keyette Clubs have merged to create the New Key Club. The club ended the year with the induction of new members and the election of officers. New officers are as follows: Catherine Harris, president; Sheila Robinson, vice president; Harlan South, secretary; Todd Resnick, treasurer; Eike Campbell, parliamentarian; and Ashley Hillier, historian.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The LATIN CLUB is sponsored by Mrs. Nan Adams. Under her watchful eye, the Club made an appearance at the Foreign Language Festival displaying art and selling Latin foods. Club members also attended the Latin banquet at Bird High School where family and friends could come too and taste an array of Latin-oriented food.

The SPANISH CLUB encourages interest in the language and culture of Spanish-speaking countries. Club activities for the year included participation in the Homecoming parade wearing costumes of Spanish and Mexican origin, a Christmas party and a pre-summer pizza party. The club sponsor is Mrs. Mary Moore.

ENRICH OUR LIVES

C'est la vie. With Madame Meador as sponsor, the FRENCH CLUB went bowling (Madame's favorite sport) and out for pizza for Christmas. At the pizza party, members exchanged gifts. For their fund-raiser, club members sponsored a raffle, giving away a walk-man. To conclude the year, the French Club had a picnic at Pocahontas State Park.

Excellence in the French language is rewarded by membership in FRENCH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. Mrs. Meador is the sponsor of this organization.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading may be glamorous, but it is a lot of hard work. It takes a lot of creativity, patience and diligence to make a routine really work.

Cheerleaders are responsible for promoting school spirit, leading the student body in cheers and representing the spirit of Matoaca at home and away athletic contests. Varsity Cheerleaders are pictured at right.

They are Angela Fields, Priscilla Bromfield, Leslie English, Michelle Mayo and Carol Traylor.

WARRIORS

The Warrior football team, under the watchful eye of Coach James Journigan, began its season slated as the "darkhorse" of the Dominion District. Eighteen players returned including captains and three-year starters Brian Durham, Marvin Bouldin and Whitney Butler.

Because of illness and injuries, the Warriors finished with a 5-4-1 record.

Outstanding players for the Warriors were Quarterback Brian Durham, who ended his three-year career with twenty-five touchdown passes and over 2700 yards passing and who earned a spot as kicker on the Tri-City 1st Team, quarterback

Tri-City 2nd Team, quarterback All-District 1st Team, kicker All-District 1st Team, kicker All-Metro 1st Team, and quarterback All-Metro 2nd Team. Brian was the first Matoaca player to earn a spot on a Metro-Team. Brian was also selected as the team's Most Valuable Player. Marvin Bouldin was named split-end on the Tri-City 1st Team, defensive back on the All-District 1st Team, and split-end on the All District 1st Team.

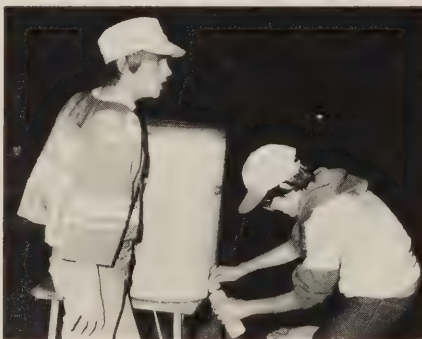

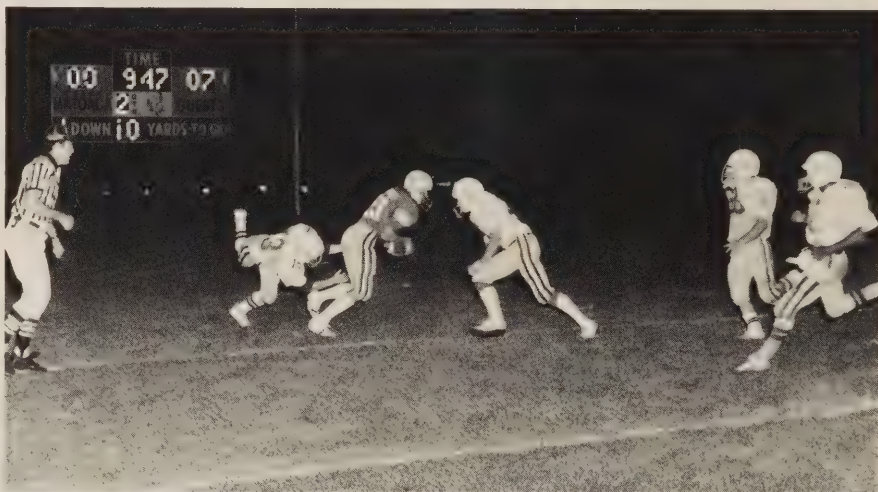

Rodney Beville, a junior running back was selected as a member of the Tri-City 2nd Team and the Dominion District 2nd Team. Juniors Leonard Pollard and Woody Temple also were named to 2nd and Honorable Mention special teams.

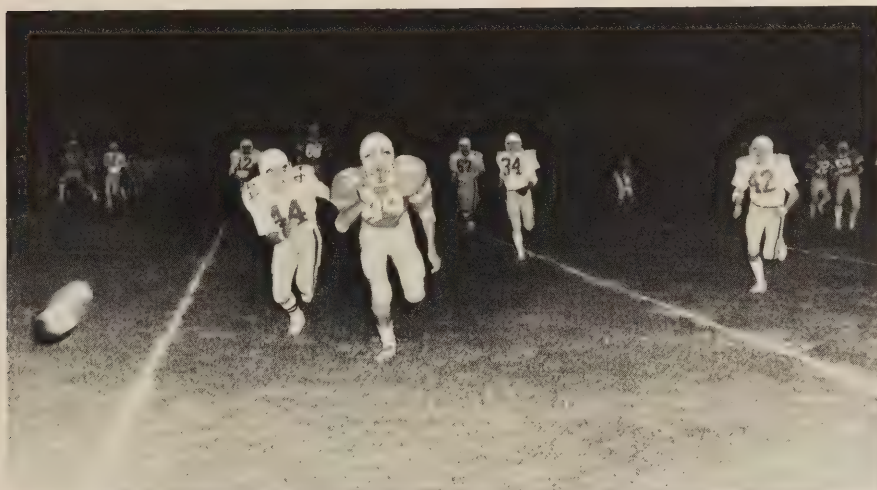

The football organization wishes all seniors — #9 Brian Durham, #7 Marvin Bouldin, #55 Whitney Butler, #83 Frank Birdsong, #95 Bobby Duffus, Manager

Tom Traylor, Statisticians Julie McClellan and Elisha Long — all the best.

JV FOOTBALL

The 1984 of the JV football season was the first in the school's history to compete in the newly designed Fall Line District. The competition was very balanced, and the team was prepared to meet the challenge of a different kind of mental and physical experience that comes with football strategy.

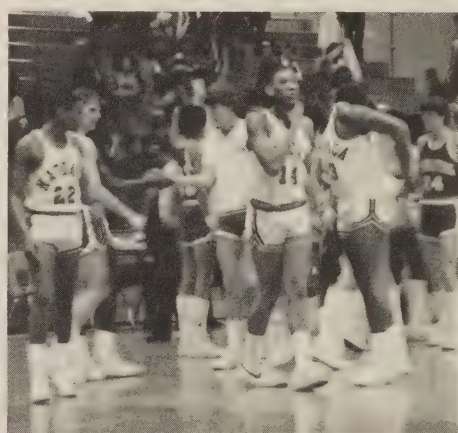

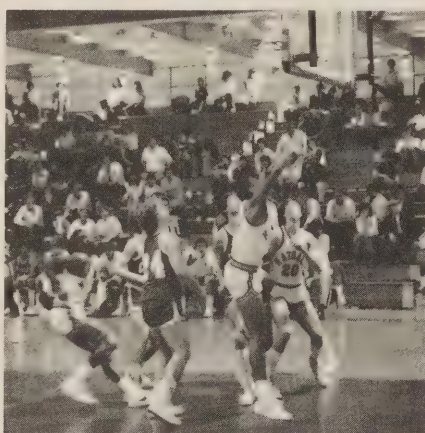

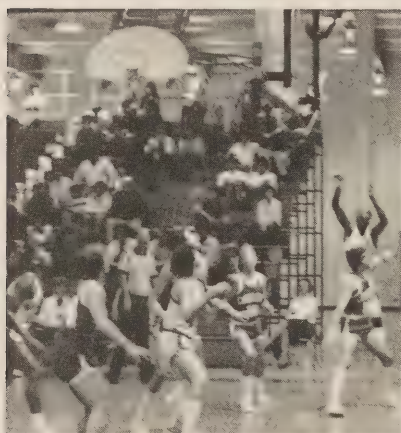

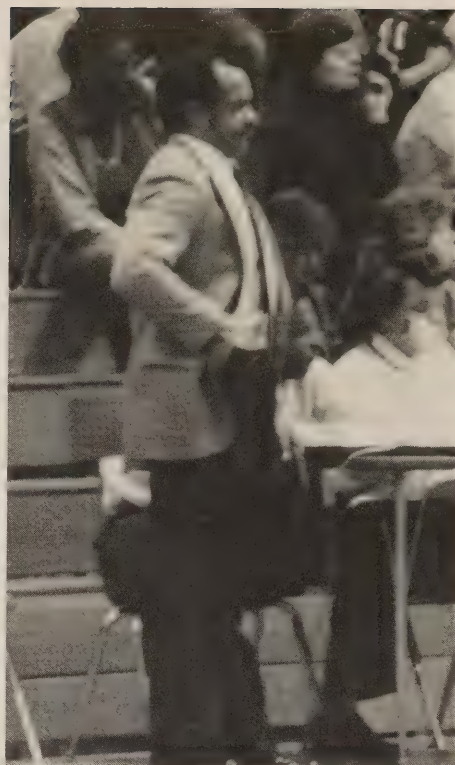

The Team consisted of a group of young men with talent, knowledge and the desire to play such a rugged sport. Co-captains were Troy Matthews, George Grundy and Mike Ketchum. Blending these players with those of equal talents, the JV football team established the concept that the Ma-toaca football program is one of reward and the expression of the desire, mentally and physically, to compete in athletic competition.

Varsity Basketball

Row 1: John Mayo, Ricky Hendricks, Larry Minter, McArthur Harris, Lorenzo Chavis. Row 2: Floyd Pettaway, Rodney Pegram, Jeffrey Mason, Frank Birdsong, Leonard Pollard, Coach Lewis.

The spirit of the Warrior was evident in Varsity basketball. Competing with pride and dignity was important, and the meaning of "strength" took on a new dimension. Photos show Coach Lewis observing the progress of the game, Warriors in action, and at right Warriors warming up.

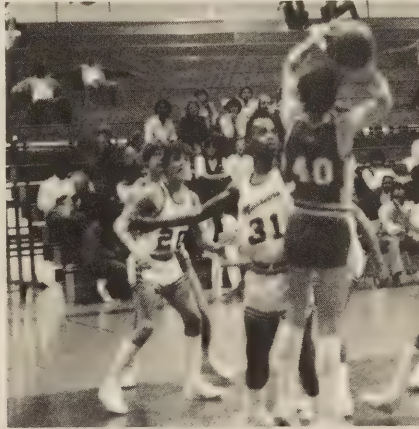

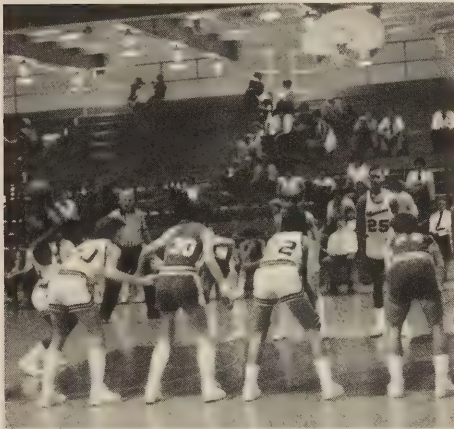

JV BASKETBALL

As the basketball season began, the objective was to blend a group of young athletes together and focus in on up-coming basketball season and district competition. The season was really a rewarding experience because after opening with early defeats, the J.V. Warriors defeated L. C. Bird. With a last second defeat by Varina, the team rolled to consecutive victories over Midlothian, Manchester, Powhatan, Thomas Dale and Meadowbrook. This year's happiest victory was the win over Colonial Heights. The team blended personal abilities of players who coped with many pressure situations and combining their efforts, reached the goals established in the early season. Warrior Co-captains were Keith Robinson, Dean Simmons and Troy Matthews. At the basketball luncheon, Troy was voted this year's Most Valuable Player. While accepting their roles and accomplishing their goals to improve, the 1983-84 J.V. basketball team asserted themselves and had a productive, winning season.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Girls Varsity Basketball Team completed the 1983-84 season with a 6-14 record, placing eighth in the Dominion District.

Senior Co-captain Katherine Warren led the team in steals, assists, and free throws. Kathy was awarded the Most Valuable Player Trophy. Shelly Orr, junior co-captain, led the team in most points per game. Shelly was injured at the end of the season and was unable to play the last five games. Leading rebounders for the Lady Warriors were senior Debra Glover and freshman Melani Cook. Sophomore Monica Smith had the highest percentage of shots made from the floor.

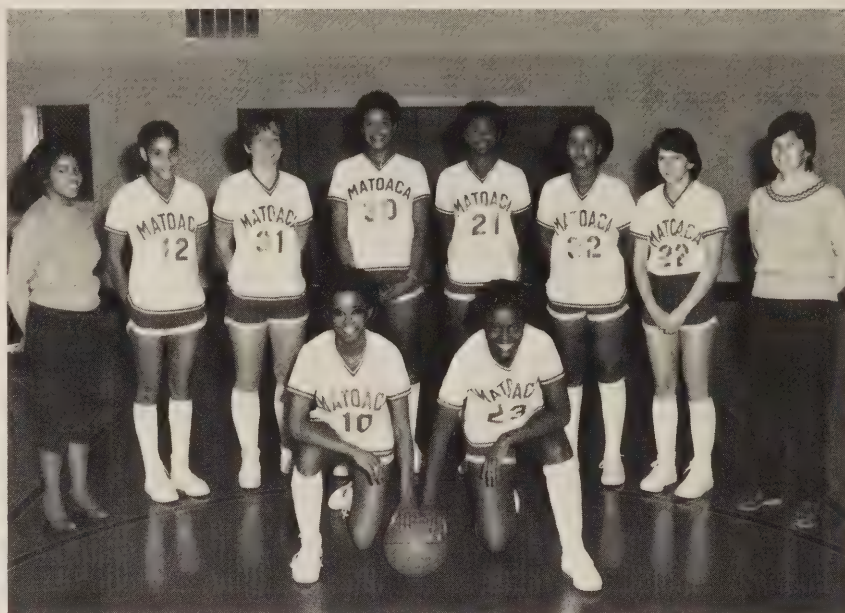

Catherine Harris moved up from junior varsity to play the small forward position. Catherine played her defensive role aggressively and consistently throughout the season and improved her offensive skills. Voneida Blevins, a reserve guard, showed a great deal of improvement in her senior year. Voneida played the guard position with quickness and aggressiveness. Candace Robinson, senior, added depth to the forward position.

The Lady Warriors graduate four of the eight-member squad. Two of the seniors are three-year letterpersons — Katherine Warren and Debra Glover. Both Kathy and Debra gave 100% toward team play and dedicated themselves to the task at hand.

The Lady Warriors wish all of its seniors the best of luck.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

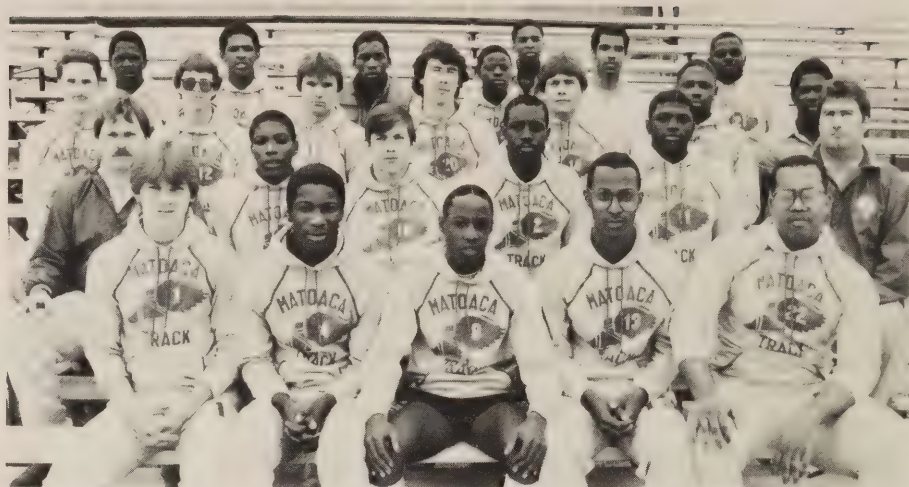

The Junior Varsity Baseball Team posted a record of 3-13, but high points of the season were outstanding performances by pitchers Jeff Hamilton and Dean Simmons and strong play from an experienced outfield. Randy Moore, an eighth grader, did an excellent job at the catcher's spot.

Above, the JV Team poses with Coach Blalock. The team takes pride in excellent play against Clover Hill and Meadowbrook. They look forward to another year of baseball with experience and the desire to win among their assets.

ON THE TRACK

The mighty Warriors of the 1984 Track Team gave their best spirit and hard work. Four outstanding Warriors made it to the regional track meet. Tony Fittz, Frank Birdsong, Michael Gholson, and Sherman Jones gave a super representation of their school. Most Valuable Player Frank Birdsong was the most improved and consistent Warrior.

Row 1: Todd Bowman, Rhodenna Gholson, Michael Gholson, George Grundy, Darryl Easter. Row 2: Coach Talley, Donny Woodlin, Sean Kingery, Tyrone Goode, Sherman Jones, Coach Journigan. Row 3: David Barfield, Roger Bare, Artie Daniels, Frank Birdsong, Whitney Butler, Floyd Pettaway, Samuel Johnson. Row 4: Tyrone Trent, Jeffrey Mason, Carlton Hunt, William Dance, Gera Miles, Kim Jones.

Led by Coach Andy Pittard, the 1983 MHS Cross Country team consisted of Michael Gholson, Shane Goins, Thomas Garrison, Todd Resnick, Greg Jorgenson, Harlan South, and Roger Bare, all of whom spent many hard weeks of work in training. Even though these runners didn't compete in the 26-mile marathon or get their share of glory as in the Olympics, they did put forth their best as shown in their record — 3-7 — their best ever.

The Cross Country team achieved many new heights such as placing seventh in the district meet and having Michael Gholson place eighth in the regionals and twenty-eighth in the state finals.

Each individual on the team is like a separate link having its own strength and endurance to run. The team resembles a chain by which the individuals give the team its strength and power when it is linked or brought together.

The MHS Cross Country team and the coach put forth their best efforts and energies for their school and for themselves with honor and pride.

The Girls Track Team completed the 1983-84 regular season with a 7-3 district record and 9-3 overall. The Lady Warriors finished fourth in the district meet and qualified six out of the nine team members for the regional meet.

Co-captain Cassandra Jones won the discus, placed second in the 100 meter hurdles (a school record), third in the shot put and fourth in the long jump. Mellani Cook placed fourth in the shot put. Lisa Gill placed fourth in the 100 meters. Dee Dee Gholson placed fifth in the 200 meters, and Tanya Smith placed sixth in the 400 meters.

The 400 meter relay team of Dee Dee Gholson, Raye Anne Smith, Cassandra Jones and Lisa Gill won second place. The 800 meter relay team of Lolita Massenburg, Dee Dee Gholson, Tanya Smith and Lisa Gill won third place and set a new school record. The 1600 meter relay team of Raye Anne Smith, Lolita Massenburg, Sally Butler, and Tanya Smith placed sixth and also set a new school record. A third school record was set by Sally Butler in the 800 meter run. Mary Jacobs ran a personal best in the 400 meters.

In the regional meet, Cassandra Jones won third place in the shot and fourth in the discus. The 400 meter relay team won fifth place and set a new school record.

Cassandra competed in the state meet held at James Madison University and finished eighth in the discus and ninth in the shot. There were twenty-four competitors in each event. Cassandra earned the 1984 MVP Team Trophy.

Marsha Terry, Matoaca's distance standput, ran strong throughout the season, but suffered a knee injury before the district meet. Senior Co-captain Amy Seymour was also injured midway through the season and was unable to complete what looked to be her best season ever.

The Lady Warriors will graduate four seniors — Raye Anne Smith, Sally Butler, Amy Seymour and Angie Fields, but will return eight letterpersons to the 1985 squad.

 First Round tournament victories in both singles and doubles

This year was rebuilding year for Girls Tennis. With the graduation of our top senior players, a mixture of seniors, sophomores and freshmen competed for the Lady Warriors. Knowing the challenge of our district, the players prepared themselves for a good tennis season. The team started the season with a defeat to eventual regional champions, Midlothian. Victories this year in both single and double competitions were over Manchester, Thomas Dale and Varina. Sophomores Sonja Williams and Christy Chapman represented Matoaca in the district tournaments. Co-captains were Sonja Williams and SENIOR Kymber Williams. Other players to win during the season were Michelle Clifton and Bonita Deane.

The Matoaca Wrestling Team ended its season with a 3-6 district record. Wrestling standouts during season competition were Kim Jones with a 9-0 record and Co-captain Mike Brown, who was Matoaca's first state wrestling contender. Mike finished seventh in state competition. Matoaca's graduating seniors are Co-captain Mark McCoun, Mike Brown, Anthony Fittz, and Kenny Wyatt. Returning matmen are Stuart Jefferson, Mike Gholson, Sean Kingery. Rhodenna Gholson, Sherman Jones, Allen Carter, Kenneth Jenkins, and Roger Griffen.

Homecoming is a night of excitement, and Homecoming 1983 was no exception. The parade, the crowd, the game — all contributed to the magical atmosphere of the night. Top, a Warrior carries the ball; above, contestants for Miss Homecoming are pictured. At right, Miss Homecoming Tammy Pannill talks with Mrs. Wilder. Far right, Tammy gets a hug as former Miss Homecoming, Joy Cooley looks on.

A Night of Excitement

More sights of Homecoming included the Keyette float, the Cheerleaders, the Drama Club, and the crowning of a queen.

STORYBOOK

Jeanette Jackson

Miss Matoaca High

Charm, warmth, poise, intelligence, grace — these are characteristics of Miss Matoace High. In the MHS pageant, nine lovely contestants vied for the coveted title by displaying their charm to the audience and judges. Jeanette Jackson was named Miss MHS. Angie Johnson was voted by fellow contestants as Miss Congeniality.

PROM NIGHT 1984. We transformed Bellwood into our magic place. For one special night we lived and danced "On the Wings of Love." We danced to the music of the band Tiffany surrounded by the colors of white, lavender and pink. Bobby Duffus was crowned Prom King, and Katherine Warren was crowned Prom Queen. John Shelton was chosen as Ring King, and Sheila Robinson was honored as Ring Queen. Also unforgettable was the arch that was and would not stay. Altogether, Prom Night was a memorable event.

YEARBOOK STAFF

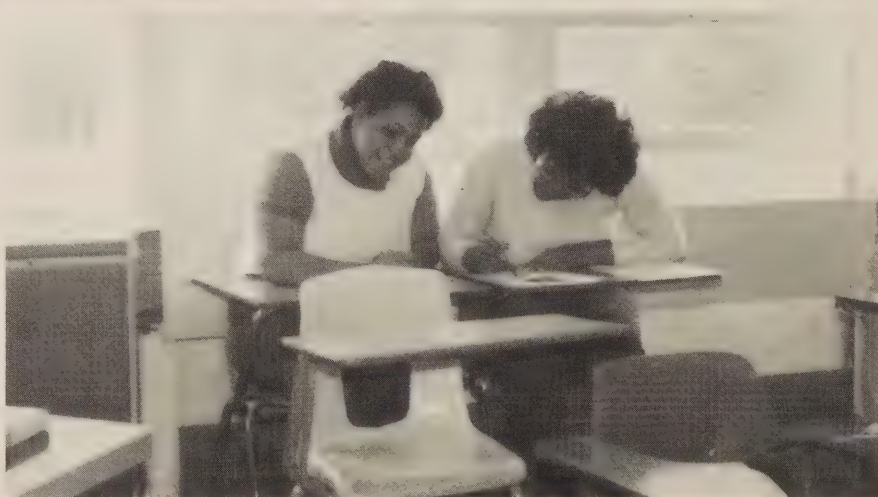

It has come time for me as editor of ARROW 1984 to write a few closing remarks. ARROW 1984 has been a truly revolutionary book. Many aspects thought to be traditional were changed in this edition of the ARROW.

As I pass the reins to the person who will assume leadership in creating ARROW 1985, I would like to leave one message to all the future students of MHS: regardless of your personal differences, you must assist your yearbook staff if not in any other way than just by buying a subscription. Without the support of the student body, the ARROW would cease to exist. To the staff of 1985 I wish you all the luck. You will have a rough time with a new sponsor, editor, and staff, but with patience and a little luck, you will turn out a good book. I would like to thank Mrs. Kathryn Pettus for putting up with my "radical" ideas and for all her help in the assembly of ARROW 1984 and to wish her luck in whatever she decides to do.

To end this message, I am going to differ from tradition once more and leave a personal message. To J.A.S.: Thanks for your support and just being there to listen. I want you to know that you will always be special to me, and you are always in my thoughts.

Producing a yearbook is a long and arduous task. Few people realize the complexity of the undertaking and the many facets involved in the finished product of the 128-page ARROW 1984. Planning, theme development, photographer, layout, copy writing, art, editing, advertising, sales, fundraising, distribution — all of these aspects of yearbook-ing must be considered carefully and executed well if a staff hopes to complete the task at hand.

Of course, the people who must execute the various tasks are responsible for the success of the effort. This year's editor was LESLIE WHITLOCK. Better known to most of us as Happy, Leslie was instrumental in planning and developing ARROW 1984 and added his expertise in photography covering many of the major events of the year. Assisting the editor in many of his tasks was SHANE GOINS. Shane sat in on many of the planning sessions and reviewed many of the pages of the book.

DANIELLE DAVIS worked closely with the staff this year. In addition to making excellent suggestions regarding the book, she typed many pages of copy. ERIKA DAVIS, Danielle's younger sister, faithfully attended yearbook meetings, assisted in sales, and was the top salesperson of the spring fundraiser.

The art which adds to the diversity of the book was contributed by BRIAN COLEMAN. Brian also proved to be one of our most enthusiastic salespersons.

MICHELLE WILLS developed a system for distributing the yearbook last fall. She also spent many of her lunch hours working on yearbook chores.

SANDRA LOGAN, CANDACE ROBINSON, and SHEILA ROBINSON were all advertising salespersons. In addition, Sandra doubled as a typist;

Candace, as a planner; and Sheila, as a copywriter.

LESLIE COLEMAN and CAS-SANDRA COOLEY conducted a survey and reported that the Seniors' song of '83-'84 was "Is This the End?"; Juniors', "Party Time"; Sophomores', "Rock It"; and Freshmen chose "We Can Make Miracles Together."

Credits also go to SONYA DOLES, ANU UPADHYAH, HARLAN SOUTH, KERRY WILLIAMS, AMY SEYMOUR, CATHERINE HARRIS, KAHLCIA PETTUS, RICHARD DIXON, JULIE MCCLELLAN, MRS. VERA TAYLOR, MRS. CARRIE JOHNSON, MR. LEROY LANE, and others who have assisted in the production of this volume.

My thanks to all of you,
Kathryn L. Pettus, Sponsor

SENIOR WILLS

I, WILLIAM ANTHONY KILLING JR., give my will power to Tammy Leatrice Dickerson that she finds whatever she wants out of life. Good luck at MHS! I leave Michael and Eric Killing the power to uphold my name to the best of their power, thy name — (Killer).

I, AMY SEYMOUR will to the underclassmen the ability to distinguish between what is theirs and what they want but can't have and to Woody Temple my very special and constant "friendship" now and always.

I, ALFRED COBBS, will the Junior Class mental aid, because you'll need it when you become a senior and to the sophomore class enough patience to get through high school.

I, SALLY, will Cindy O'Shields the maturity and grace to accept and understand his friends.

B.C. — Even though you'll be away for a while, I will always have a beautiful reminder of you. Love to you always — L.N.

I, ANGIE JOHNSON, will Renee Lanier and Rhonda Stell a book of memories for all the good times this year.

I, KENNETH WYATT, will Larry Minter the ability to keep his affairs discrete and the intelligence to get out of trouble when he is caught.

I, PAMELA WHITLOW, leave Yolanda Surley the power to uphold the Warrior name and to Konrad Whitlow the willpower to stay out of trouble.

I, ANU UPADHYAYA, will Tom Jacobs all the good luck to make next year a great one.

I, ANTHONY FITTZ, will the Matoaca wrestling team and Stewart Jefferson the willpower to go all the way in '85.

I, DANIELLE RENÉ DAVIS, of partial sound mind and body will E.A.D., A.D.S., A.L., and all of my friends the ability to hang in there when the going gets rough, and to Mr. Laws, I will the ability to live your life as a human and not trying to replace yourself with God.

I, RODNEY BUTLER, will my sister, Jade, the ability to make her senior year the best and to never have Mrs. Hill's government class.

I, VERONICA BROOKS, will my sister, Felicia, the good learning experience that I received at Matoaca High and the will to make it out of here, and to Sharon Weaver a LAVENDER EXP with spoke rims and a fun roof.

I, SHERRI JORDAN, will to Kim Brickhouse best wishes with the rest of her high school years and to the Class of '85 the best of luck next year.

I, K.N.W., will D.E., D.G., and P.B. the ability to tell the truth or to collaborate on lies.

I, ANGELA R. FIELDS, in sound mind and body do hereby leave my sense of humor and craziness to Lisa Gill and Michelle Mayo. I will to my dear sister, LISA WILLIAMS, four years of high school in which she may encounter maturity, high grades, good luck and success.

I, TAMMY PANNILL, will Jade, Tonya and Kim all the happiness they deserve. I hope '85 is the best for you! I will to Lisa, Tracy, Debbie, Bobby, and Sam the ability to get everything they want. Thanks for making '84 special!

I, DEBBIE WALKER, will Tonya, Donna, Jade, Kim, Beth, Debbi and Sissy the ability to have a great senior year and to always be happy. I will my brother, Russell Walker, and my best friend, Sandy Stell, the ability to make their next two years of high school the best ones ever and to always remember how much I love them both.

I, KIM CHAMBLISS, will Carlton Mason all the LUCK in the world.

I, FRANK BIRDSONG, will Artie Daniels the ability to slam, jam, and vault.

I, BRIAN DURHAM, will John Shelton, Woody Temple, and Rodney Beville very successful senior seasons in both football and baseball at MHS. I will to Rodney Beville the All-Metro honors as kicker because he will deserve them.

I, ANGIE JOHNSON, will Justine Shiflett the ability to succeed in high school and to always be happy.

I, DARRYL EASTER, will Kim Brickhouse the best of luck in the future, and to my brother, Dwayne, all of the best in MHS.

I, KIMBERLY GOODE, will Patrice Goode the strength and courage to get out of MHS and an alarm clock to make it to first period on time. I will to Ernest Harris the ability to stay in class and make it thru until your graduation.

I, PRISCILLA BROMFIELD, will the 84-85 Cheerleading Squad of MHS the ability to carry on the true Warrior spirit and dedication so in comparison you won't look so bad. I will the MHS graduating Class of 1984 the best of luck in future endeavors and the strength and power to survive until our tenth-year reunion.

I, ROBYN HAWKINS, will Charley Stone the ability to keep MHS alive with your singing and craziness. I wish you all the best.

I, KYMBER N. WILLIAMS, will all the people who make up the great MHS family, the best of luck in the years to come (especially Class of 85). I will to my brother, Travis, the ability to succeed and prosper in his future years in Matoaca High School.

LEGACY OF '84

I, YAME KITE, will Marissa Torrence all the happiness and luck with Toby Williams possible.

I, JULIE MCCLELLAN, will Mary Jacobs, Kelly Austin, Coach Journigan, and the entire coaching staff of the MHS football team much success, a winning season, and a great relationship with the media. I will lots o' luck and success to my good friends Kym, Sal, Rasanne, Bri, Hita, Cathe, Ben, Susan, and my almost-brother, Whitney.

I, DAREN GRIFFEN, leave my quiet spirit to Matoaca High; I also leave my kindness to my brat for a sister, Karen Griffin. I, BRENDA TILLEY, will Sally Butler a bubble gum lip gloss since Whitney ate the last one, and to Jackie Crigger the ability to distinguish fantasy from reality and just remember I TOLD YOU SO! I will Tracy Lewis x-ray vision so she will be able to see through the shelves at Roses. To Sandy, Joan, Jade & the Crew: I will ya'll the luck I had through my years at Matoaca High that kept me out of trouble. L.D.B.

I, SALLY, will John all my love and lasting friendship. I needed a friend and you were always there. Thank you for not changing, even when you could have.

I, BETH JENKINS, will to Angela Long and Scott Dixon the magic of individuality I discovered my sophomore year of coming to Matoaca. Be true to thineselves and the world will be yours, and your dreams will be reality. To Donna Worley, my best friend and a very special person, I will you the strength to make it through graduation next year. LISA BANNISTER. I, TOM TRAYLOR, leave my suntan to Ashley Hillier and Rodney Beville. I, Felicia Diane Reed, being of sound mind and body hereby leave all my high school jazz to Lisa M. Gill, on the condition that she be cool and jazzy throughout her Matoaca High years.

I, RODNEY BUTLER, will Stacey Tremelon the ability to always stay happy. Remember the times we've shared, the things we've said and how much you mean to me.

I, KATHERINE WARREN, will the Girls Basketball Team the strength to run one more suicide.

I, SALAD, will Artie Daniels the ability to pole vault as well as Frank, a backrub, a great track season in '85, and another friend like me.

I, JAMES TAYLOR, will Sonja Williams the ability to be a better cowgirl in her remaining two years. I will all the good luck and great times to Mendy Blowe, Tracy Siegle, Pam Birdsong, and Melanie Donner.

I, FRASIER BRICKHOUSE, II, will my sister my abilities so that she may continue climbing up her ladder of success. I leave the Class of 1984 the strength to be weaned from their life support systems they call friends. I leave the Class of 1984 a book on how to survive college, because half of us could hardly survive high school. To the New Wave Posers: A road map of Richmond so you can see there is more to life than Broad Street. Class of '84: There is ALWAYS room for improvement. Strive more every day.

Good-bye Matoaca High!

To Ronnie Lundie, the will to get good grades so you won't have to change them.

To the Class of '85 the will to get through Mrs. Hill's class. To the Class of 1985, I leave all the will and determination to have and enjoy your senior year the way you want.

I will the future students of Matoaca some class.

I will that the students of MHS learn there is more to life than making up untrue things about people.

I will to the Class of '85 a year of "peace, order," and "organization."

To the 84-85 Key Club President a gavel so she can keep order at the meetings.

To all the cliques of MHS: The ability to think for yourselves and to understand the meanings of individuality and non-conformity.

I will the Class of '84 some bandages to cover the wounds that you received from your backstabbing friends.

To the freshman girls who think they know it all: enough brains to know you don't.

I will the Nose-Pots of the Class of '84 the power and strength to stay out of people's business and to get their own business straight.

To all the New Wave posers: the ability to recognize true New Wave music and to realize it takes more than just a wardrobe.

I will all the "College Park Guys," the best of luck in the future especially with the ladies.

I, senior, will Marvin Bouldin the power to move on to his best ability. It's there; he just hasn't found it.

To the 84-85 SCA President, a car so he can stay after school and work late.
